Summary

Neil has over 15 years senior management experience having held financial and leadership roles in industries such as electricity retail and generation, commodity and financial market trading, sports administration and agriculture.

Utilising a vast experience in successful senior management positions, from publicly listed companies to SME's, his strengths and proven business acumen have been used to develop and implement successful strategies to significantly increase business performance across a range of businesses and industries.

Neil employs a simplistic approach to strategy development and implementation breaking through all the jargon and phraseology to simply determine who we are, what we do differently, how do we behave, how do we do it, when are we going to do it and who is responsible for delivering. This approach has seen businesses he has been involved with create 10's of millions of dollars in additional value for shareholders.

Neil has an MBA from the prestigious Henley Management College in the UK, is an Associate Fellow of the NZ Institute of Management, and has a business degree and diploma in management.
